

1. Did he use to be a singer?
2. Did he use to be a good swimmer?
3. Did you use to be a driver?
4. Did this use to be an office?
5. Did they use to be enemies?

1. Yes, he used to sing.
2. Yes, he used to swim a lot.
3. Yes, I used to drive a bus.
4. Yes, he used to work here.
5. Yes, they used to fight.

1. What did you do in school?
2. What did you grow on your farm?
3. What did they sell in that shop?
4. What questions did they always ask in class?
5. What stories did you tell the children in the evenings?

1. I studied reading, writing, and other subjects in school.
2. We grew rice, potatoes, and peaches on our farm.
3. They sold clothing and shoes in that shop.
4. They always asked hard questions in class.
5. I told the children fairy tales in the evenings.

1. What kind of a shop was that?
2. What kind of a house was it?
3. What kind of paper was there?
4. What kind of festivals were there?
5. What kind of animals were there?

1. It used to be a goldsmith's shop.
2. It used to be a splendid house.
3. There was kite paper.
4. There were many elaborate and joyful festivals.
5. There were cows, horses, and chickens.

1. What was his job in Lyallpur?
2. What was your business there?
3. What was your grade in school?
4. What was his position in the government?
5. What were their occupations in the village?

1. Did you like swimming?
2. Did you like studying?
3. Did you like cooking?
4. Did she like sewing?
5. Did they like traveling?

1. Yes, I used to be an expert swimmer.
2. Yes, I used to be a good student.
3. Yes, I used to be an expert cook.
4. Yes, She used to be an expert seamstress.
5. Yes, they used to be seasoned travelers.

1. Did you use to play kabbadi also?
2. Did he use to fly kites also?
3. Did your son use to herd sheep also?
4. Did they use to plant wheat also?
5. Did she use to sing also?

1. Yes, I used to play on the kabbadi team.
2. Yes, he used to fly kites in the summer.
3. Yes, my son used to herd sheep in the hills.
4. Yes, they used to plant wheat in the fields.
5. Yes, she used to sing in a chorus. (Qawwali)

1. What else have you planted?
2. What else has she sung?
3. What else have we seen?
4. What else has he written?
5. What else have they built?

1. I have planted wheat, oats, and rice also.
2. She has sung popular songs and religious songs also.
3. He has written newspaper articles and poetry also.
4. We have seen many movies and plays, too.
5. They have built libraries and schools also.

1. Has she polished the tables in this room, too?
2. Has the tailor measured that fabric over there, too?
3. Has the butcher weighed the beef on his scales also?
4. Have we caught the quail in the trap?
5. Has he bought jewelry in that shop?

1. Ho, she has not had the time to polish these tables.
2. No, the tailor has not had time to measure the fabric.
3. No, the butcher has not had time to weigh the beef.
4. No, we have not had time to catch the quail.
5. No, he has not had time to buy jewelry.